

Flamingo

Flamingos are pink because of the food they eat. It turns their feathers pink.

Flamingos eat with their head upside down and in the water. They suck the tasty bits out of the muddy water.

Flamingos often stand with one leg tucked under their feathers to keep them warm. Can you stand on one leg like a flamingo?